Numb. 503.

THE Pennſylvania GAZETTE.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

FROM JULY 27. TO AUGUST 3. 1738.

LONDON, April 6.

The OPINION of the Committee of the HOUSE of COMMONS of England.

1ſt. IT is the Opinion of this Committee, that it is the natural and undoubted Right of the Britiſh Subjects to ſail with their Ships on any Part of the Seas of America, to and from any Part of his Majeſty's Dominions; and that the ſeizing and confiſcating ſuch Ships as are not ſailing and trafficking in the Ports and Havens which have Fortifications, Caſtles, Magazines or Warehouſes, or in any other Places poſſeſſed by the King of Spain, is contrary to Equity and Juſtice and in manifeſt Violation of the Treaty ſubſiſting between the two Crowns.

2*dly*, That it is the indiſputable Right of the Subjects of Great-Britain to carry in their Ships all ſorts of Goods, Merchandize or Effects, from one Part of his Majeſty's Dominions to any other Part of his Dominions, and that no Goods, Merchandize or Effects ſo carry'd, are by the Law of Nations, or any other Treaty between the two Crowns, to be deemed or taken, as contraband Goods, and that the ſearching ſuch Ships on the open Seas, under Pretence of finding contraband Goods, is highly injurious to the Trade of this Kingdom, a Violation of the Law of Nations, and an Infraction of the Treaty ſubſiſting between the two Crowns.

3*dly*, That the Subjects of Great-Britain did hold and poſſeſs Lands in the Province of Jucatan in America, antecedent to the Treaty of 1670, which Treaty confirmed the Right to each contracting Party of ſuch Lands or Places as either did at that Time hold or poſſeſs, and that the Subjects of Great-Britain have at all times claimed a Right of cutting Logwood in the Bay of Campeachy, and enjoyed the ſame without Interruption, during the Reign of Charles the Second of Spain, which Right ſeems farther particularly ſecured to us by the Manner in which the firſt Article of the Treaty of Commerce at Utrecht confirms the Treaty of 1670, with theſe remarkable Words, "Without Prejudice "to any Liberty or Power, which the Subjects of Great-"Britain enjoyed, either through Right, Sufferance or In-"dulgence."

4*thly*, That the attacking of a Fleet of Britiſh Ships gathering of Salt in the Iſland Tortugas, then under a Convoy of one of his Majeſty's Ships of War, by two Men of War belonging to the King of Spain, firing on the Convoy, and taking four of the ſaid Ships, was a notorious Infraction of the Convention ſinged at Madrid the 14th of Sept. 1715, and a high Inſult on the Honour due to the Flag of Great-Britain.

5*thly*, That it appears to this Committee, that for many Years laſt paſt, the Liberty of Navigation in the American Seas has been unjuſtly diſturbed by the Spaniards, under Pretence of Searching for and finding illicit Trade, the Britiſh Ships have been unlawfully ſeized on the open Seas, plundered and confiſcated, the Sailors robbed, inhumanly tortured, impriſoned and made Slaves, to the grievous Loſs of the Merchants, the Obſtruction of Commerce, and the Diſhonour of the Nation.

6*thly*, That it appears, notwithſtanding the repeated Application of Parliament, the Treaty of Seville, and the Aſſurances ſo frequently given to the Merchants, of procuring Reparation for their Loſſes and ill Uſage, and notwithſtanding, the Expectation of the Nation, of receiving juſt and ample Satisfaction for the Cruelties exerciſed on its Subjects, and the Inſult offered itſelf, nothing has in ſo many Years been obtained from the Court of Spain, effectually to ſatisfy the Loſſes, repair the Injuries, or retrieve the Honour of the Nation, tho' the ſaid Treaty of Seville, ſo advantageous to Spain, has been punctually obſerved on the Part of Great Britain.

April 26. A Fire broke out at the fine Seat of Peter Shackerly, at Wirthing, near Wrexham, in the County of Denbigh, which conſumed all the fine Houſhold Goods, Pictures, &c. valued at 12,000 l. Mr. Shackerly, his Lady and Children got out at a one Pair of Stairs Window, by the Aſſiſtance of a Ladder. The Cook was burnt to Death; the Houſekeeper kill'd, by jumping out of a Window; and ſeveral of the other Servants, who jumped out of the Windows to ſave their Lives, had their Limbs broke, and were otherwiſe bruiſed in ſuch a manner, that their Lives were deſpaired of.

Edinburgh, April 24. Complaint being made the 8th Inſt. to the Magiſtrates, that a mad Bull-Bitch, belonging to a Butcher, had bit many Dogs in the Fleſh-Market; to prevent the fatal Conſequences that muſt very juſtly be apprehended from ſuch a Number of furious Maſtiffs in this populous Place, the Magiſtrates iſſued a Proclamation, "Ordering all Dogs belonging to that Incorporation to be forthwith put to Death, under Penalty of 5 l. Sterling, and Impriſonment to the Owners for 12 Kalender Months; nor are they to keep Dogs for 30 Days to come; Alſo ordering all Citizens and Inhabitants to remove their Dogs from the City and Liberties; alſo impowering the City Guard and Town-Officers to kill all Dogs that ſhould be ſeen on the Streets after next Day at Noon, and requiring the Town Treaſurer to pay one Shilling Sterling Reward for each Dog ſo killed." The Street-Cadies, &c. went very early in Obedience to this Edict; for the Drum had ſcarce gone round to intimate the ſame, when they fell a knocking o' the Head all the ſuſpicious or ill-affected Curs, ſome of which they hanged on Sign Poſts, &c. and with Difficulty could they be reſtrain'd from killing the Dogs that lead the Blind about the Streets, or attacking the Ladies with their Lap Dogs. A Detachment of the City Guard was order'd down to the Butcher-Market, when they made very clean Havock of all the Dogs there. Saturday at Noon the Town Officers being provided with large Oaken Clubs, went a Dog hunting, and kill'ed every Cur they could ſee or hear of. The Magiſtrates of Leith order'd all the Dogs of their Town to be put to Death. Accordingly the Curs were drove into the Harbour, and drown'd, or knock'd on the Head. Several Gentlemen and others ſent their Dogs to the Country to avoid the Act; and a certain Writer sent his Favourite Dog Tipsie to Haddington in a Cloak Bag.

VIENNA, April 26. General Doxat has been executed at Belgrade, for surrendering Nissa to the Turks without making the least Resistance. After the Commissaries had pronounced the Sentence, he said, This then is the Recompence of 38 Years Service, and of the many Wounds I have received in the Service of the Empire; and I must die for having saved the Lives of Six Battalions.----A few Days after the Execution, the Officers of the Garrison were called before the Governor, who declared to them, "That the Emperor judg'd that Example necessary, in order to let the Officers of his Troops know, that when he entrusts them with the Execution of his Orders, it is their Business to follow them punctually, and not interpret them according to their own Notions".

The Emperor has appointed the Prince of Saxe Gotha, Brother to the Princess of Wales, Lieutenant Veldt Marshal of his Armies.

LONDON, April 29.

A Letter from Leghorn, dated April 12.

"A Foreign Ship having several Pieces of Cannon and a "large Quantity of Ammunition on board for the Service "of the Corsicans, has provisionally landed her Cargo here, "waiting for new Orders from Lord Theodore, by whom "she was freighted. We hear from Bastia, that the Corsi"can Deputies who had been there in Conference with the "French General, the Count de Boissieux, were returned "back to their Camp, for more ample Instructions relating "to the Accommodation he is endeavouring to make be"tween the Republick of Genoa, and the Malecontents of "Corsica. But the last Letters from thence say, that those "Deputies declared to the Count, that the Corsicans were "determin'd never to submit to the Republick, unless his "Most Christian Majesty would be pleas'd to leave a Body of "French Troops in that Island FOREVER, sufficient to pro"tect them from any future Attempts and Breach of Faith "of the Genoese."----Now the Mask begins to be lifted a "little, and in a few Weeks more we need not doubt of "seeing it quite taken off. Our Mediterranean and Levant "Trades bid fair, at this Rate, to be in a hopeful Condition "next Year! But it is to be suppos'd our timely Endea"vours will not be wanting to ward off this Blow before it "comes too home upon us.

May 4. They write from the Hague, that tho' the States General have not yet been prevailed on to arm in Concert with Great Britain against the Spaniards, their High Mightinesses have, however, repeated their Orders to M. Smits, who is Secretary to the Ambassy at Madrid, and charg'd with the Affairs of Holland there, to make strong Representations at that Court against the Injustice of the Spaniards, in taking the Dutch American Ships, which the Secretary has never failed of doing in the most pressing Manner, but with no better Success than Mr. Keene has had in his Solicitations for the Release of the British Ships taken by the Spaniards. M. Smits observes, in one of his Letters to the States General, a pretty Circumstance; he says that all the Ministers of the Court of Spain have their particular Pretences when Aplication is made to them for Redress in these Affairs; that of the Marquis de la Quadra is always to alledge that some important Paper relating to the Affair in Question is mislaid, by which Means he retards the Disparch of the Business about which he is sollicited for whole Months, nay in some Cases seven Years. M. Smits further takes Notice, that this Minister was forced, the last time he saw him, to call the old Excuse into his Aid, but at the same time said, "You may, with the utmost Secu"rity, assure the States General, that their High Mightinesses "shall be fully satisfied in every thing they demand; and "nothing at present impedes it but the want of the Paper "which I have several times spoke of, and for which the "Viceroy of Mexico has been wrote to.

PROPOSALS for Printing by Subscription, A Treatise on the DISEASES of Virginia, and the Neighbouring Colonies. In Four Parts, viz.

I. The remote Causes of the Epidemical Diseases, collectively considered, from the Circumstances of the Climate, and common Way of Living.

II. Each Disease separately stated; wherein is shewn the immediate Cause, with a Retrospect to its Connection with the Remote Cause, and the curative Part amply set forth.

III. The Reasons why Diseases translate.

IV. An Essay on Pleuritick and Peripneumonick Fevers, wherein the Nature of these Diseases is fully and clearly explained; and thence is demonstrated, that the Cure both of the nervous and inflammatory Kind, consists in attenuating the Blood, save only, that Evacuation is requisite by Blood-letting and Purging in the latter.

To which is annexed, An Appendix, shewing the strongest Reason, a priori, that the Seneka Rattlesnake Root must be of more extensive Use than any Medicine in the Materia Medica; and these Reasons are supported by several Instances of the extraordinary Efficacy of that valuable Medicine, which still more plainly directs its Use in Pleuritick and Peripneumonick Fevers, and other Diseases. And herein is also demonstrated, that this Root will suit the Cure of the Small-Pox: With References to Doctor Hillary's Treatise on that Disease.
